

We keep you safe 24/7

HSL Security Robot advantages:

After the pandemic, robbery and gun shooting become major concern of many organizations. The cost of human security force is getting higher and higher. HSL Security is able to bring to you the affordability to purchase, lease AI security robot to solve complex challenges, enhance and strengthen your security plan.

Stronger Security

HSL Security provides AI-based solutions to empower your security organization to solve complex challenges.

We enable you to combine the strengths of human and artificial intelligence to provide increased security coverage, workflow automation, consistency, and reporting capabilities at an affordable cost.

HSL Technology uses cutting edge technology with:

Real-Time Response

Built-in microphone and speakers to communicate with personnel at site immediately.

Facial recognition system to identify criminals, thieves, and any unwanted persons immediately.

Smoke and fire identification system to alert and protect your organization assets immediately.

Reporting and Analysis

One of the greatest benefits of AI is the flexibility it allows your organization to respond faster and discover threats prior to its occurrence.

Automatic robot guard providing analyzed data.

Data is vital in order for your organization to make the right decision. Our software has the capacity to provide accurate analysis in seconds to keep your company agile.

Solve Complex Labor Challenges

AI automation security robot is the future of the security work force. HSL Security provides innovative and autonomous devices for businesses to enhance your security organization with affordable cost. Your action should be now!